TOUR DESCRIPTIONS

AUSTAL SHIPBUILDING TOUR
Wednesday, September 25

Thanks to a contact Dianne Martin and Ben Sumrall have, we are being offered a rare opportunity to visit Austal USA. Austal USA is a prime contractor of two major U.S. Navy shipbuilding programs: the Independence-variant Littoral Combat Ship (LCS) and the Expeditionary Fast Transport (EPF). Both programs are currently under serial production at Austal USA's Mobile, Alabama shipyard. The ships from each program that Austal has delivered to the Navy have played integral roles in several major national and international Navy and Marine exercises, humanitarian relief efforts and celebrations. For security purposes, a passport or Driver's License AND birth certificate are required for this tour. It is unusual for us to offer a Wednesday tour, however it was the only time that worked.

1:00pm board bus; 4:00pm back at hotel
$34/person includes transportation.

EASTERN SHORE OF MOBILE BAY TOUR
Thursday, September 26

Depart for a tour of the Eastern Shore of Mobile Bay, one of the country's most exclusive resort areas. Along the rural Alabama countryside stands a beautiful work of religious art, the Greek Orthodox Church at Malbis Plantation, which houses over 100 hand painted icons and murals. The church, a replica of a Byzantine chapel in Athens, is a magnificent structure containing marble from the same quarry that provided stone for the Parthenon. Our next stop is the Storybook Castle, which was built by an artist during WWII using left over materials from building sites. Another popular stop is Punta Clara Candy Kitchen, located in a rambling 1897 Victorian home; this candy kitchen has been operated by the decedents of the original owners for over 50 years. The all-natural candy is made from original recipes and sold all over the nation. Enjoy lunch at a popular Mobile restaurant. Lunch will be followed by free-time to browse and shop in Fairhope, Alabama, a quaint bayside village filled with artisan shops for unique crafts and gifts.

Expanding over the years, today the Original Oyster House includes a gift shop, boat dock, and over 400 seats. Enjoy a delicious dinner buffet that includes: Jumbo Fried Shrimp, Whitefish with Pecan Butter, Roast Pork Loin with Jezebel Sauce, Florentine Chicken with Cream Sauce, Red Beans and Rice, Country Green Beans, House Salad, Bread Pudding, Rolls, Tea, Soft Drinks, and Coffee.
